

The following terms of use refer exclusively to the submission of written statements, audio or video messages (jointly statements) by shareholders or their authorized representatives via the InvestorPortal and the publication of these statements. The regulations for exercising your shareholder rights by other means remain unaffected.

Use of the statements

The statements will be posted by the Company on the InvestorPortal for retrieval by authorised users in accordance with the statutory deadlines and conditions (in particular section 130a (1) to (3) AktG).

Right of use; right to one's own image

Persons submitting statements grant the Company the royalty free, non-exclusive, transferable, sub-licensable, unlimited in time and space, right of use in connection with the 2023 Annual General Meeting within the legal framework. This right includes, in particular, the right to host, copy, edit, translate or create derivative works of the statement and to publish it via the InvestorPortal. In addition, the Company is entitled to make statements available on the InvestorPortal for retrieval by all authorised users from the time of submission until 17 May 2023 at the latest - if necessary in an abbreviated version.

If submitters can be seen in a video message, they agree that their image may be used for the purposes mentioned in the previous section.

If the submission of the statement or its use in accordance with the provisions of these instructions for use affects the rights of third parties, submitters affirm that they are entitled to grant the aforementioned rights.

Statements of minors

Minors may only submit statements in the form of video messages if the consent of their legal representatives has been obtained for the publication of the statement. The Company reserves the right to verify the existence of the consent and to contact the respective submitter for this purpose after the submission of the statement.
